summer chess

master's chess intensive

Jessie Kraai

pre-grades 1-12

12:40 p.m. – 3:30 p.m. 984-57 June 19–23 $130

Join Mr. Jesse Kraai, International Chess master ranked 75th in the U.S., for a one-week, intensive chess clinic that combines instruction with a dose of healthy competition. Designed for experienced players with a minimum USCF rating of 900, the afternoon begins with a formal tournament game; then, in partnership with the instructor, students analyze each game. Players are divided by playing strength, and instruction is appropriate to skill level. Tuition: $130. ■

move by move: summer chess camp

Dale Gibbs & Eddie Sedillo

	981-1	June 5–16	$170
pre-grades 1-12	982-2	June 19–30	$170
3:30 p.m. – 5:30 p.m.	983-3	July 3–14	$170

Our summer chess-camp program provides instruction and an opportunity for organized play. Not only is chess an enjoyable, life-long pastime, the game also has proven benefits as a means of improving players' analytical and visualization skills. Instruction, which includes teaching the basic concepts of the game to beginners and game analysis for players at all levels, will be provided by experienced qualified chess instructors and members of the Academy Chess Team (New Mexico state champions). There will be daily, informal games, speed ("blitz") chess, team play ("bughouse"), and time-controlled tournaments. Students may register for one or all three of the two-week sessions. Tuition: $170 per two-week session. ■
